Popular Haunted Corn Maze Returns to Cal Poly This Weekend

SAN LUIS OBISPO - The Cal Poly Crops Club will host its annual Haunted Corn Maze this year for two nights only: Friday and Saturday Oct. 26 and 27.

The Haunted Corn Maze will hold a family night Friday, Oct. 26. From 7 to 8 p.m., the maze will be suitable for young children. From 8 to 10 p.m., the Crops Club will increase the fear factor, making the maze suitable for teens and adults.

Teens, children and adults are encouraged to come in costume - ready to be scared!

The Haunted Corn Maze will be scary all Saturday night from 8 to 10 p.m.

Admission both nights is $4 per person and the public is invited. Parking is free.

"Come on out and be prepared to be spooked," said Crops Club member Lupe Carillo.

To get to the Haunted Corn Maze, take Highway 1 to the Highland Drive entrance to campus, turn left on Mt. Bishop Road, and follow the signs to the maze and free parking.

The Cal Poly Pumpkin Patch will also be open on Saturday, October 27, for pumpkin picking and sales between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. This year the Pumpkin Patch has several sizes to choose from, with prices for pumpkins ranging from $3 to $9
